38th SPACE CONGRESS PAPERS: If you are presenting a paper at this conference in May, you should remember that all papers and presentations by KSC people for conferences, meetings, and publication in journals must be formally released to the public by KSC. Though NASA strongly supports getting the results of our scientific and technical work out to the American public, there are intellectual property, export control, etc., reviews to be completed first. NASA's Document Availability Authorization (DAA) process accomplishes these reviews. NASA Form 1676 will lead you through the steps of the process. Additional information is in NPG 2220.2A. Contact Marilee Tewksbury at 867-4540 or mailto: TewksMH@kscems.ksc.nasa.gov if you have any questions. (TA-E)

ZIP CODE DIRECTORY: The Zip Code Directory is now available on the internet at <http://www.usps.gov/>. Users can add ncsc/lookups/lookups.htm to the URL and go directly to the Zip Code look up. Hard copies of the Zip Code Directory will only be ordered for users providing written justification explaining why they can not use the internet version. This justification should be provided to Ted Courson, TA-E1, or email Courson-1, James. (TA-E1)
